

All relationships are top to bottom, left to right if not indicated otherwise.
Payments and thus the treasurer's role are omitted (not included in use cases). Authentication of users is not represented (it is relatively trivial but would add complexity to the diagram).
Secondary use cases for registering boats are not represented due to the impracticability of representing conditional associations.